

USD 399 Picture Day

USD 399 will be having picture day on Tuesday, November 7th. Photos will be taken by district personnel which will allow pictures to be offered to parents at an affordable price. All students and staff will have their photos taken in order to be used in the yearbook. If your student is absent on the day of pictures, we will work to get them taken as soon as possible.

The below order form should be used to purchase prints or the digital file, which will be emailed. Payment must be submitted at the time of ordering and each student will need a separate order form. Please make sure to select the background color of your choice!

If there are any questions, please call the high school at 785-885-4849.
